Friends
OF SOUTH CAROLINA LIBRARIES

FOSCL'S Mission:

- To help foster, create, and support local Friends of the library groups, and to provide a means for these groups to work together for the betterment of library service in South Carolina.
- To serve as a resource for local Friends groups
- To promote wider knowledge and use of libraries as cultural and information centers for individuals and groups
- To support improved library education in South Carolina
- To support the Library Bill of Rights

About FOSCL

FOSCL, a 501c(3) organization, has helped foster, create, and support local Friends of the Library groups for over 30 years. FOSCL brings Library Friends together for the support of public library services throughout South Carolina.

FOSCL holds a statewide annual meeting and periodic regional meetings and workshops around the state, working with local Friends groups. The FOSCL digital newsletter highlights local groups' events and successes. FOSCL's website provides information about upcoming events including annual awards for library advocates and public officials.

Why Join FOSCL?

When you join FOSCL or renew your annual membership, you help ensure effective library advocacy in our state. Advocacy leads to improved literacy for South Carolina residents, better workforce skills, and information access for all. Especially during times of economic shortfalls, library and literacy advocacy are critical for a higher quality of living in our state and nation.

FOSCL can help your library's supporters form a friends group, provide assistance in formulating a strategic plan for achieving your group's desired goals, and lend fund-raising advice.

FOSCL Board members participate in statewide library advocacy events including literacy and reading venues such as the South Carolina Library Association Annual Conference. FOSCL has secured the Governor's official proclamation recognizing Friends of Libraries Week in our state.
